“African Treasure”

Valued at $35,000 Limited Edition of 25, In Bronze
Dimensions: 27”h x 36”l x 16”w

The African Elephant, by far the largest land mammal on the planet, is often considered the most intelligent. Master Sculptor Laran Ghiglieri has broached his subject with reverence, creating a young rearing bull that clearly plans to outlive the elders of his clan and protect his hereditary treasure...his ivory tusks, which are, of course, the “African Treasure”.

Master Sculptor Laran Ghiglieri, rising star of the Ghiglieri Dynasty, has been designing and creating award-winning masterpieces since he was 11 years old. Truly a child prodigy, he answers the call of his ancestral predecessors and follows the footsteps of his father toward artistic brilliance.

A Laran Ghiglieri bronze was adopted by the national nonprofit, The Wildlife Waystation, and presented as their “Lifetime Achievement Award” for support of wildlife rescue and preservation in 2004.”.
